Coalition Clean Baltic
FOR PROTECTION OF THE BALTIC SEA ENVIRONMENT

The Polish Ecological Club, Green European Foundation, Green Institute and Coalition Clean Baltic would like to invite you to participate in

The debate on the future of Common Agriculture Policy beyond 2013

which will take place in Warsaw on 30th November 2011

place: Conference Center RONDO 1, street: Rondo ONZ 1, five minutes walk from central railway station

The event will discuss pros and cons of the new CAP legislative proposal and aim at the elaboration of a common position statement of Polish environmental and social NGOs, which will be presented to Polish institutions, the European Parliament and the European Commission. This debate is a continuation of the conference on the CAP and agricultural policies organized by the Green Institute in March 2011, when we met for the first time and elaborated the common position statement of nearly 30 Polish organizations. Such a strong voice has reached the European Commission, Polish institutions and commissioner Lewandowski. Our position statement was referred to in specialised international media.

Now we would like again to take up the discussion with you!

The debate will be moderated by Dorota Metera – Member of the Council of the Green Institute, member of the Council for Organic Agriculture, advisory body for the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, since 2009 she is representing Polish member organizations in the Board of IFOAM EU Group.
